Flesher works in partnership with faculty, staff and students to enhance the university's international focus. He looks to identify and pursue strategic partnerships with local, state, national, and international organizations.

In conjunction with his role at the university, Flesher serves as a senior advisor to the chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents.

In this consulting role, David works to advance the internationalization of the university system of Ohio. From 2000 to 2008, he served as Assistant Vice President, Director of Agency Allocations and Partnerships, and Director of International Operations at the Jewish Federation of Cleveland.

David will be contributing to the "Three Universities' Reflections on the Long and Winding Road towards a Data-Driven Global Engagement Model" session on Monday afternoon – June 18th.
