

How Does the QS World MBA Tour Help With Your MBA Search?

Description

The QS World MBA Tour is a comprehensive day, designed to guide MBA aspirants on the journey to finding their ideal MBA program and study destination.

An MBA is beneficial for working professionals looking to get ahead in their career, start their own business or switch jobs or location.

Prospective MBA candidates can benefit greatly from the QS World MBA Tour, with opportunities to learn about MBA admissions and testing requirements from leading business schools and QS partners.

Business school admissions are very competitive, and getting some face-time with admissions directors at the QS World MBA Tour could help narrow the MBA search and make a great first impression on key decision makers.
